

Join us at an open community forum on

Restorative Justice

Restorative Justice is a theory of justice that emphasizes repairing the harm caused by criminal behavior. It is best accomplished through cooperative processes, which allows all willing stakeholders (those impacted by the crime) to meet to negotiate their own resolution rather than the court system doing it for them.

Speakers:

- Thomas Williams, Attorney, Co-host of Partnership for a Compassionate Louisville
- Judge Angela McCormick Bisig, Jefferson County Circuit Judge, Member of the Kentucky Supreme Court's Racial Fairness Task Force
- Libby Mills, Executive Director, Restorative Justice Louisville

You're invited to this

Dinner & Democracy Meeting

Monday, March 18, 2019

Dinner at 5:30 p.m. • Program at 6:00 p.m.

(reservations not required, donations gratefully accepted)

Hosted Video of Program Repeats: Tuesday, March 19th

10:00 a.m. (without speakers)

Lang House, 115 S. Ewing Ave., Louisville

Empowering Voters. Defending Democracy.